Proctoring Your Exam

The CM-Lean exam is now available virtually using ExamSoft's online proctoring solution, allowing AGC to digitally observe exam-takers with video and audio monitoring throughout the exam.

What to Expect

Before You Begin | Follow these recommended steps to minimize the risk of being flagged during your exam:

- Disconnect external cameras and mics - use built-in resources only, if available.
- Remove all textbooks, notes, or other materials from your workspace.
- Do not use your mobile phone at any time; remove headphones/earbuds
- Do not get up from your computer for any reason until your exam is complete. Use the bathroom before your test! You have about four hours to complete you exam.
- Please find a quiet place to take your exam. Ensure that you have privacy for the entire exam - do not interact with other people or receive any outside assistance. Do not read exam questions out loud.
- Remain focused on the exam, without looking at your phone, textbooks or notes.

Exam Start | These are requirements for you to access your exam:

- Biometric Consent: Give Examsoft consent to take your biometrics (e.g. take your photo).
- A/V Access: Allow access to your webcam + microphone.
- Facial Recognition: We will take your picture to verify your identity each time you take your test.

Finishing Your Exam

- Before closing out your exam, make sure an answer has been marked as a blue bubble that is filled in.
- Keep your computer connected to the internet with Examplify until you verify that the exam upload has been completed.
